

SCHEDULE

to the Children Act

"A valuable and comprehensive reference guide and practitioner manual, presenting the current law in a logical and accessible format. I strongly commend this book"

- The Honourable Mr Justice Cobb

Charlotte Bradley
Head of Family Team
Kingsley Napley

James Pirrie
Director
Family Law in Partnership

It has been over 30 years since the Children Act 1989 came into force yet there are few textbooks covering Schedule 1. Now James Pirrie and Charlotte Bradley have published the 3rd edition of this popular book which provides a guide to the current law and practice for both practitioners and litigants. The book is available for download in exchange for a donation to one of our chosen charities, The Hampton Trust and NACCC.

The suggested donation is: £100 for firms/teams; £30 for individuals.

Email as@flip.co.uk once you have donated to receive your digital copy.

The Hampton Trust

The Hampton Trust which was founded in 1996 has developed a range of community based interventions for families experiencing domestic abuse alongside providing innovative criminal justice responses.

Click here to donate

NACCC

NACCC is the only charity in the UK dedicated to providing safe spaces where children can meet the parents they don't live with. They oversee around 350 contact centres across the UK, run by a network of nearly 3,000 volunteers.

Click here to donate